OPEN FRIDAY NITE 'TIL NINE

Family Feted By Relatives, Friends Here

Darrell Milford, his wife Evelyn, and their four children Marie, Ginger, Gary and Margorie, arrived quite unexpectedly from Eugene, Oregon, for the New Year Holidays and were the guests at a number of parties in their honor. He had not been in the area for 15 years.

His sister, Mrs. Ralph Robertson, 22111 S. Harvard Blvd. was pleasantly surprised when she received a phone call from her brother, December 28, who had just arrived from Oregon and was calling from Hawthorne.

On Sunday, December 30 a family reunion was held at her home. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Waincott, Mrs. Ben Waincott, and Mr. and Mrs. Max Overton and family, Los Angeles; Mrs. Leo Milford, Mrs. Paul Boulanger, and Eddie Anderson, Hawthorne; Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Milford, Torrance; and Mr. and Mrs. Ray McClendon, South Gate.

On New Year's eve a party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCray, 1121 Cranbrook ave. Dancing and a buffet supper highlighted the evening. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Masey, Paramount; Bill Mayers, San Pedro; Thomas Stewart, Gardena; Paul Boulanger and Eddie Anderson, Hawthorne; Mrs. Leo Milford, mother of Darrel, from Missouri; and Larry Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fink, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robertson, Torrance. Dan Mayers, San Francisco, entertained the New Year's crowd by playing the piano.

Milford, who never expected to see so many of his old friends, left with his family early Tuesday morning for Oregon where he manages an estate.

'Flaming Fantasy'

Andy Nizetich, hair designer at the El Camino college cosmetology department, completes the top award-winning hair style in the semi annual contest sponsored by the department. Mrs. Grace Frost "models" the creation titled "Flaming Fantasy."

JC HAIR STYLISTS WIN AWARDS AT EL CAMINO

Two hair styles, "Demure" and "Flaming Fantasy" brought honors to Miss Betty Lasasso and Andre Nizetich in a recent hair styling contest sponsored by the cosmetology department at El Camino college.

Professional judges determined junior and senior division winners on a basis of workmanship, suitability and originality. Mrs. Vern Wilson, Torrance, modeled the winning style for Miss Lasasso, junior division first place winner, and Mrs. Grace Frost, Torrance, modeled Nizetich's entry. Second and third places in the junior division were awarded to Miss Geraldine Burpee's "Intermezzo" modeled by Miss Dolores Geerlings, Redondo Beach, and an entry titled "Holiday," originated by Mrs. Gloria Bones and modeled by Mrs. Eva Booher, Santa Susanna. Modeling "Stardust" and

YW MIDWINTER CLASS SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

Midwinter classes at the YWCA, 2320 W. Carson, are scheduled to get underway soon and promise worthwhile instruction in bridge, crafts, social dancing, reducing, and a course for expectant mothers.

Women interested in any of these classes may enroll simply by becoming members of the worldwide YWCA organization according to Lillian Bellante, president. Potential "students" are urged to sign up for the classes as soon as possible.

The following classes are being offered: BRIDGE — Wednesdays, 1-3 p.m.; January 16-March 20; instructor, Mrs. Barbara Howell. This is a beginners class or for those who wish to review the fundamentals. CRAFTS — Thursdays, 9:30-11:30 a.m.; January 17-March 7; instructors, Juanita Shaffer and Gertrude Gates from the Handicrafters Shop. The group will start with copper enameling, experiment with textile painting, and decorate various objects.

SOCIAL DANCING—Thursdays, 8-10 p.m.; January 17-March 21; instructor, Mrs. Gladys Nauman. Basic steps of the fox trot, swing tango, and mambo will be taught. This class is open to both men and women. STREAMLINERS — Wednesdays, 8-9 p.m.; January 16-March 20; instructor, Mrs. Joyce Notter. This is an exercising class. Class members will decide what type of exercise they wish to concentrate on. STORK CLUB—Tuesdays, 8-9 p.m.; January 8-February 26; instructor Mrs. Doris Alles, a qualified physical therapist. The object of the course is to prepare the mother physically and emotionally for childbirth through informal discussions, pictures and demonstrations.

MOST PEOPLE are about as happy as they make up their minds to be.—Abraham Lincoln.

CARD PARTY

The men of St. Margaret Mary's church, Lomita, are sponsoring a card party, Thursday, January 10, at 8 p.m. in the Parish hall, 255th st. and Eschelman ave. The usual card games will be played, prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served. The public is invited.

BETSY ROSS CLUB MEETING SET

Betsy Ross club will meet Tuesday, January 15 at the Torrance Masonic temple, 2336 Cabrillo ave. Hostesses will be Dorothy Fyken, and Evelyn Howland.

PTA TOPIC ANNOUNCED BY HALDLE

"Destiny of our Children" is the Haldale PTA topic January 10, 1:30 p.m., at the school. Mrs. Glenn W. Scribner, exceptional children's chairman of the Lomita-San Pedro PTA council, will speak on "Retarded Children and Mental Health."

At a recent board meeting, Mrs. A. Weber, March of Mothers chairman for the March of Dimes, announced that 45 Haldale PTA board members will ring door bells January 31 from 7-9 p.m. to collect for the polio fund. She urges residents to leave their porch lights burning on that night.

Mrs. W. H. McGuire and Mrs. Irvin Bishop, ways and means chairmen, announced that the next paper drive will be held January 17.

Due to the heavy enrollment expected next semester, which starts February 4, two rooms will be on double sessions. Children who will have their fifth birthdays on or before May 1, may pre-enroll for mid-year kindergarten classes beginning on January 28.

Amaranth to Meet Tonight at Temple

The Officers and members of the Order of Amaranth, Lomita Court No. 61, will meet in the Torrance Masonic temple tonight, January 10, to honor the Sir Knights of the Order. Royal Matron Gladys Motherwell and Royal Patron Clyde Satterfield will preside during the business session and "Good of the Order."

Sir Knight Fred Bacon, associate patron and his helpers, will be in charge of the entertainment and activities in the banquet room.
